No. 12611—FE-FE3-FE-0319/2016—Whereas, Shri Manas Kumar Das and 9 others filed O.As. Vrs State of Odisha and others for fixation of their seniority in the gradation list from the date of their initial appointment and subsequent promotional benefit accordingly, through O.A. Nos. 2211-(C), 2212-(C), 2213-(C), 2214-(C), 2237-(C), 2238-(C), 2253-(C), 2473-(C), 2187-(C), 2888-(C) of 2016 before the Hon'ble OAT, Cuttack;

And the Hon'ble OAT, Cuttack vide their order, dated the 12th April 2017 while disposing the O.As. directed as follows:

“In view of the above detailed analysis, the respondents are directed to count contractual service of the applicants for the purpose of seniority and place them in the gradation list in the appropriate place. Consequent upon fixation of inter se seniority, if it is found that their juniors have been promoted in the meantime their case shall be considered for promotion from the date when their juniors have been promoted. The entire exercise be completed within a period of two months from the date of receipt of the order. With the above observation/direction all the O.As. are disposed of.”

The Government after careful consideration in consultation with Law Department, in order to avoid such anomaly and further litigation, have decided to make one time relaxation of Rule 24 using the Clause 25 of the Odisha Subordinate Foresters Service (Method of Recruitment of Foresters) Rules, 1998, to allow seniority to the Foresters recruited as contractual Foresters during 2006-07, and the seniority of these contractual Foresters recruited during the year 2006-07 is fixed above the regular Foresters appointed during 2009 and 2011 for the purpose of seniority and place them in the gradation list in the appropriate place. Consequent upon fixation of inter se seniority, if it is found that their juniors have been promoted in the meantime their case shall be considered for promotion from the date when their juniors have been promoted.

This has been concurred in by Law Department vide their UOR No. 99-MHFWL, dated the 20th May 2017.
